About Charité Memorial Site

Information and links

Persons interested in learning more about this topic can click on these links for further web pages, our recommended literature and contact partners are presented in the following web pages.

Publications: Berlin Faculty of Medicine and the Charité during National Socialism

Recommended literature (selection, status as of November 2013)

General Information and Overview

Diversity Destroyed – Dismissal, Persecution, Expulsion and Exile

Central Themes of National Socialist Medicine

Post World War II

More Recommendations:

Online project "1933: The Beginning of the End of German Jewry"